Student Policies: Rules and Student Code of Conduct

The primary responsibility is to provide you with a safe and healthy learning environment. As a student you are learning to exude high standards of professionalism which you will use as you move into a professional work environment. Learning to be an excellent employee begins here. We reserve the right to change behaviors not suitable to the work force or discipline for behaviors unsuitable to a staff member or client. Failure to cooperate can cause:

1. Verbal or Written Warnings
2. 3 Written or Verbal warnings may cause the Suspension from school services or classes and accrue additional time and/or charges.
3. 1 Suspension from school may lead to permanent suspension with no refunds.
4. A permanent suspension from school due to previous written or verbal warnings will not be refunded.

Time Cards

We must write down and track our time in school. Accurately recording our information is crucial to our learning process.

Arriving Late

Being on time is important in our industry and is a part of professionalism. If you arrive late you may receive a verbal or written warning. Failure to arrive on time more than 6 times may result in a suspension or being expelled from school. If you are late please call, email, or text the school of the situation.

Leaving Early

To leave early you must communicate with the instructor and explain why you need to leave. If a school client is scheduled you may have to assist with finding a schedule adjustment.

Lunches/Breaks

Lunch breaks are specified by the instructor on time and length. Typically they are 30 minutes. If you are late returning from lunch please follow the protocol for Arriving Late. Breaks are established by the instructor depending on the flow of studies or clients for the day. Typically breaks are 15 minutes long with one in the morning and one in the afternoon. Breaks may not be taken during short class schedules or if leaving early for the day.

Duties

All students may be assigned duties for cleaning up or setting up for the treatments when we see clients. Some duties may be sanitation, cleaning, emptying garbage, dusting, sweeping, etc. Please know this is to keep the establishment sanitary and also to comply with The State of Wisconsin's Safety, Sanitation and Sterilization codes.

Name Tags

Name Tags may be required.

Safety

All students and instructors are required to take action to keep everyone safe. Please clean up or consider any safety issues for our clients or other students. We are all required to keep each other safe.

Accidents on School Grounds

Any accidents that occur must be reported to the instructor.

Parking/Transportation

The Washington County School of Esthetics does have parking but does not provide transportation. Students shall park where instructed, at this time please do not park by the front entrance. Leave that area for customers to the school.

Personal Property

The Washington County School of Esthetics is NOT responsible for loss, theft, or destruction of a student's property or student supplies. Please keep your items close to you and label if necessary.
